Student Life

Farewell to Seniors . . .

Dedication to the Class of '83
Begin your future with:
Courage, to face the unknown
Laughter, to get you through the rough times
Adventure, to help you achieve all that you always wanted to Self-assurance, you know you can do it Self-esteem, respect for yourself comes first Originality, so your personality shines through Flexibility, so you won't fall apart if things are not going exactly right
83 cheers for you!!!

Trying

As I felt the drops of rain falling forever falling.
I noticed someone walking, watching.
As if he was trying to do things
no other man had done before.
And as I watched him for awhile,
I saw the most peculiar thing,
He was trying to do things no
other man had done before.
When I continued on my way, I found myself trying to do things
no other man had done before.
R. Golan

When I think back upon my years at NCE, I have such mixed emotions. I remember the thrill of freshman week, meeting new friends, searching the halls in the scavenger hunt, and first registration.

Freshman and sophomore year seemed to go by quietly and then came junior year and the infamous Methods, TTA from Fred, Allll right from Lil, Along, Along, Along the way from Mary and ah, ah, ah from Ida. Other classes brought other teachers special to me. To Doc Challand, Doc Hannah, Pat Blus, and Deane Moore—thank you for everything.

I've lived through the scariest time of my life, student teaching. I'll miss everyone at NCE, you've come to mean so much to me. Good luck to all who are still here and good-bye to those who are special friends. Love,

Barbara Galletta

P.S. To Rick—It's been a great four years with you as a boss.

It has been nearly a year since I left NCE, and began teaching in the "Real World". A year full of new experiences, adventures, trials and tribulations and a great many realizations. There is nothing quite like facing a group of students for the first time knowing you are the teacher. It is the first year of teaching that is the most difficult. A new teacher, a rookie, does not have the knowledge or the know how of his tenured collegues. I found the first year to be a challenge. Comparing the first year of teaching with my college days, I'm glad I attended National. Their high standards and demands prepared me for that first year.

The Changes Come

From Morning to Night the changes come.
Like the cold of Winter to the warmth of Spring.
The subtle changes of all our lives. The things we don't see, but yet it has to be.
The seasons come and the Seasons go. Like the childrens swing both to and fro.

Childhood (Life)

Seeing, sighing.
Laughing, crying.
Talking, Screaming.
Planning, scheming.
This is childhood.
Running, playing,
Even praying.
Working, relaxing,
Life sure is taxing.
No time now to run
and play.
Money, pay check.
It's gone, What the heck?
This is childhood.
"My hair is greying!"
The old man is saying.
Too old to run and play,
But not too old to sit
and pray.
THIS IS CHILDHOOD!

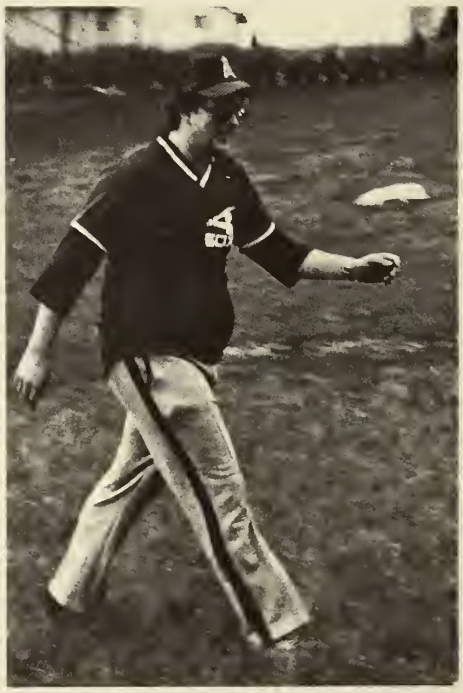
MARCH GRADUATION PARTY IN LOMBARD

EVANSTON VS LOMBARD

Inning—1; Score, Evanston: 85, Lombard: 0

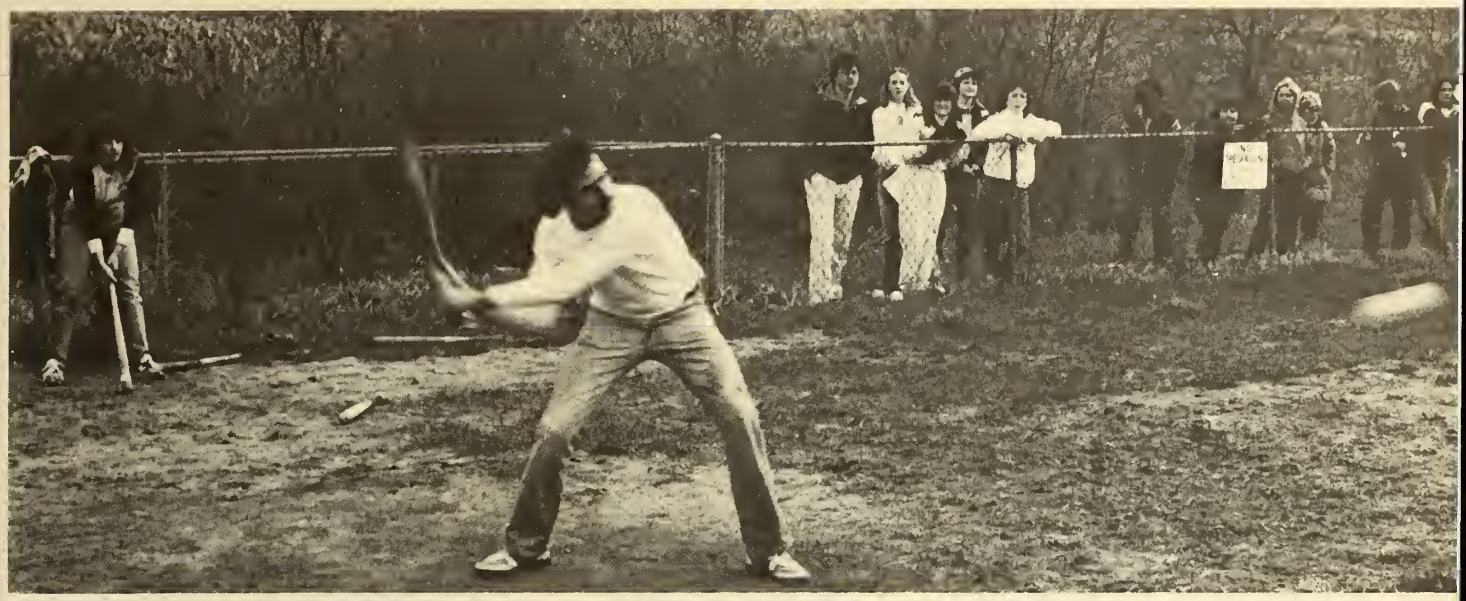
Look, that last line drive took my hand off!



"Don't worry, this ought to be easy, Evanston says they haven't won a game yet," grins Keith.

Cleo hides pizza under her hat to take home for a snack.

Where There's food, there's Cotter!



Only behind by 92 runs, can Dan save us from this predicament? Not by using his golf swing!

Sue's on first. Will she make it home? Can she score? Will she score? Ask her boyfriend.

Sally and Cindy relax after a vigorous game of "chase the ball".

Rosie asks, "by the way, who did win the game?" Madeline and Debbie laugh only because they didn't know either.

SCIENCE METHODS

"But Doc, doesn't incompetency count?"

". . . and let me tell you what he did next . . ."

"I'll get you and little Kathy too!"

"So that's what it looks like!"

"What else can you do with a pop bottle?"

Nancy passes out refreshments.

Thanks to Bob, Randy, Larry, Nancy, Jerry, Lyn, Kim, and Janette for all your help. Even with all the work we were still able to have some fun. You're a bunch of terrific people. Thanks again for letting me count on you. Good luck to each of you for a bright and beautiful future! Love, Tina

P.S. Francis, Stephanie, and Peggy—Thanks for the shoulders I needed so often!

Before attacking the powerful Creightons from Nebraska, the Lakers need a good warm-up.

Victory is on her mind

Average Season

Jean concentrates on scoring a free throw

Quoting Coach Bolinder, "Our defense is adequate, but if you don't get the ball in the basket, it really doesn't mean much. It has been a problem this year having only nine players: five fresh., three soph., and one junior. Our inexperience is evident at times, but the girls have worked extremely hard and have made substantial gains in the fundamentals of basketball. With this added experience NCE will have a strong team in the future."

The Coach goes over last minute plays.

Final encouraging words are given by Coach Bolinder.

Well, here it is, finally the yearbook! After getting off to a late start, we finally got things together and put the edition together. We would really like to thank everyone who helped us do this especially Francis, Karen, Terry, and of course Randy—with out you this publication could not have gotton off the ground. A message to the graduates: May you never stop learning, living, and loving. They are the true virtues of life. Good Luck!

An Ending

What a memory! How sad to sit and think that such a meaningful relationship has ended.

A good friend is lost and my heart aches.

But why? There is no reason—just two people who have grown in two different directions.

There is beauty in old friendships—if only they would last. All that is left are the memories. These do not seem to be enough, but they must be.

Without these memories, we would never know the sadness or the joy we have felt.

We would never know that we have lost, and, therefore, would not continue our search.

Childfest a Success

The Early Childfood Club is an organization dedicated to promoting awareness concerning young children. The club is open to all NCE students who are interested in children through grade three. This is done through speakers, films, and conferences. The main event is Childrest, which is activities and workshops for parents and children.

Denise and Margret help the children make play-do.

Candlelight Bowl

Candlelight Bowl was an event sponsored by Circle K. The profits were given to charity. The evening was filled with fun and laughter shared by friends.

Try throwing one between the legs. It guarantees a strike.

Little Women

Little Women is the well-known story of a New England homelife of our sisters, Meg, Jo, Amy, and Beth. The story is based on the author's own life.

Tom Jones was performed in Fall quarter. It is "a comedy and high spirits showing the uproarious adventures, the alarms and happy escapades of young Tom Jones and his Sophia. The cast consisted of Ron Golan (Tom Jones), Natalie Horney (Sophia), Sam Edwards (Patridge), Laura Lipsky (B. Allworthy), Randy Johson (Squire Allworthy), Nancy Thomashaw (Deborah), Kathy Knighten (Jenny Jones—Mrs. Walteers), Jerry Crystal (Cap. Blifil), Cal Claus (Square), Ray Chialmulera (Thwalkum), Jodie Gerst (Lady Bessaston), Regina Olley (Maid), Siri Anderson (Maid), Abby Olschan (Mrs. Whitefield), Colin Murphy (Mr. Fitzpatrick), Ron Johnson (Highwayman), Rhonda Chorney (Honour), Lyn Longjohn (Miss Western), Chris Trip (Harriet Fitzpatrick), Dawn Klebba (Maid) Robert Parkinson (Justice Dowling).

Hannah inquires about Beth's delicate health.

Laurie is entertained by the neighborhood children.

Invade Weinstein

Meg breaks up a family misunderstanding.

Laughter

As the wings of escape, laughter plays with all of the innocent children.
The kind who are crying right now.
Laughter is free, and so is he who laughs.
So fly away, and please be free,
and laugh at the way we used to be.
I hear the laughter, like it was yesterday.
I hear the laughter . . .
